“ Dear Cindy and family, Phil was like a part of our family in raising our boys Warren and Gerald. They worked at Phil's service station and learned a lot of life lessons from Phil. He had their respect and affection. We are grateful for his life. The last time I saw him was at the red light in Bryan at Villa Marie and College Ave. As I pulled up beside him he rolled his window down as I did, and said "Hey I saw your daughter and son in law right here yesterday". We both laughed at the craziness of life and drove away. Not only his family, but many friends will miss him. I pray for God's strength, peace and comfort to bless you in all the coming days.
