“ I always knew him as Sonny and in my seventy years he was the same kind and thoughtful guy. Anytime I was fortunate to be around him I felt blessed. He was an amazing musician from the heart which, as time went on, encouraged me to find and grow my own path first in piano, then pipe organ and then piano accordion which was a major part of my life for thirty years. He taught me that there is a beginning but not an end. We just keep learning and developing till the Lord calls finality at his gracious will.

What I remember the most happened when I was four years old. Sonny worked at the Karcher's grocery. My mother shopped there for groceries because it was one block away. It was at Easter' and she brought home a huge chocolate rabbit which was a gift for me from Sonny. For a child of four and anything made of chocolate I had to feel blessed.

May all you hold dear find comfort in the Peace that only Christ can give, and may you also find joy in sharing your memories of special times together.
