

Phyllis Jean Moore

February 9, 1961 - March 22, 2023

Phyllis Jean Moore was born on February 9, 1961, in Independence, Kansas. She passed into heaven on March 22, 2023, surrounded by her loving husband and best friend, her son, sister and brother.

After graduating from Kingsland Christian Academy in Kingsland, Texas, her life of adventure and travel began.

A devoted mother to Rusty, Terry and Rene, her three children whom she deeply loved, Phyllis was also blessed with six grandchildren. Tyler, Damian, Franky, Liam, Morgan and Gregg were her life.

Speaking of life, Phyllis lived hers on her own terms, which means it was always an adventure. She was not afraid of anything or anybody. She was a fierce defender — one would not want to mess with her or her family.

She later met the love of her life, John Moore, and in 2013, her dream came true when she married him. It was a very wise decision on her part because John stood beside her through thick and thin.

For better or worse, through sickness and health, John was there, loving, supporting and caring for Phyllis. In 2014, tragedy struck. Her daughter, Rene, and granddaughter, Morgan, were killed in a car accident. It was a nightmare

Phyllis was never able to wake up from.

Her health was challenged, and for nearly a decade she bravely fought through COPD with the help of God, her loving husband and family.

Despite hardship, her faith never wavered, nor did her trademark resolve. She was a remarkable person and will be missed by many.

Phyllis is survived by: her Husband, John Moore; son, Rusty Tatro, and his wife, Heather; son, Terry Tatro; grandchildren, Tyler, Damian, Franky, Liam, and Gregg; brother, John Riedle; brother, David Riedle, and his wife, Carol; sister, Sally Hernandez, and her husband, Ted; mother and father in law, Ronni and William Moore; brother in law, Bill Moore, and wife Kim; sister in law, Mary Smith; sister in law, Theresa Banda, and her husband, Buzz; and sister in law, Michelle Weis, and her husband, Tom.

She was preceded in death by: daughter, Rene Jorgensen; granddaughter, Morgan Smith; mother, Dorothy Riedle; father, Gregg Riedle; brother, Roy Riedle; sister, Jan Quick; and sister, Ellen Brockman.
