“ Randall my cousin with the biggest smile [always]. I will miss seeing you at the family get togethers. You always asked how my girls are, I will never forget that. But most of all I will remember how excited you were when you were on my gambling bus and headed to Coushatta there were over 50 people on that bus but you were the only one smiling for the entire trip. Good memories!

“ Randall - my cousin, I can't believe you already walked out the door and went upstairs. The one thing I do know is we are going to miss the hell out of you and your laughter. The other thing I know is you have an amazing welcoming committee welcoming you home up above. Uncle Ray, Ricky, Aunt Loretta, and so many others that love you. Fly high. I wish I could have said goodbye, but that's never easy either. Gone but never forgotten.
