“ Britt was my little league coach for years-grew up with James. He is the person who introduced me to catching and I am forever grateful for that. I know he struggled late in life so may he rest in peace.

“ Britt was a very kind man who did so much in life, and for so many. He was so involved with the Rockdale community, and I knew him from his son, James Powell. Britt was helping out on the Alcoa RS&S Rockdale Hospital Train fundraiser when I first met him in about 1992. Later, I got to take him flying. Britt said my landing was one of the best, and that he based that on his 20 years of flying in the Air Force. I considered it the highest complement I ever got in 35 years of flying. I liked talking with Britt about flying the P-51 Mustang. I wish I could and would have spent more time with him. It was always a pleasure. A truly great man whose life and service made the world a better place. Ray
