“ I have so many wonderful memories of my Memaw, especially from when I was little. The holidays were always special because everyone in the family came together, filling the house with laughter, love, and togetherness. Those moments made everything feel warm and complete.

One of my favorite memories will always be an Easter Sunday when we set up a volleyball net and decided to play as a family. None of us expected much—until Memaw surprised us all. I will never forget the moment she dove to the ground to save the ball. We were completely shocked. In that instant, she looked like she was 20 years old again—full of energy, joy, and life. We all laughed, amazed and smiling, and that moment became one I'll carry in my heart forever.

That's how I'll always remember my Memaw—strong, joyful, and loving in a way that made every moment with her unforgettable.
