“ My heart is heavy. The earth has loosed its bonds on my brother Bob and as a baptized child of God, he is in heaven with a new body and a mind free of the confusion related to Alzheimer’s disease. Bob was a hard working, humble man who loved his family, especially his wife Pat. When he heard her voice, Bob knew he would be cared for lovingly. Bob truly liked taking care of his cattle and the land. Until we meet again with all the saints gone on before us, I will cherish the memory of my beloved brother and all he stood for. Sister, Betty Burttschell Brinkman
