

Robert Groves Mundine Jr.

October 18, 1925 - March 5, 2019

Robert Mundine passed away on Tuesday, March 5, 2019 in the Regency Nursing Center in Cameron, Texas

Robert was born October 18, 1925 to parents Robert Groves and Mattie Harrison Mundine and raised on their farm near McDade, Texas. He is survived by his wife of seventy-one years, Doris June (Cox) Mundine, children William Bill Mundine of Rockdale, Jan and Tom Reed of Cameron and David and Jeanie Mundine of Rockdale, as well as a brother, Edd Lee and Susan Mundine of Greeley, Colorado. Also surviving him are 5 grandchildren, 7 great grandchildren, two step great grandchildren, and numerous nieces and nephews. Preceding him in death are his parents and sister, Iva Dee Dunkin, brothers, Harvey Ervin Mundine, Mayo Jack Mundine, Thomas Charles Mundine, Winfred Roy Mundine, and Arthur Mundine.

Robert grew up with six brothers and one sister, and they all learned the value of hard work. Robert enjoyed working and so he worked hard his entire life. One of his favorite jobs was operating heavy equipment which he excelled at. But he also loved hunting and fishing and was a true outdoorsman. His parents raised him and the other children in the Christian faith and he was baptized at an early age. Robert loved God and when he had children of his own, he made sure they grew up in the church. Robert's greatest treasure was his family, his wife Doris and their three children.

Robert left McDade while still in his teens to serve in the Coast Guard where he was involved in action in World War II. He told many entertaining and sometime sorrowful stories of his days in that war. He also became a chef and prepared meals for the ship's crew. He was called, "Chef Two Pots" because he said one pot was for the sailors and the second pot was for himself.

Robert always had a large heart for others and was very generous and ready to give a helping hand to anyone at any time.

Robert often spoke about what a good life he had lived. Ever grateful, he was a happy and proud man who loved God, his family, and life itself.
