Bob Orr was born March 15, 1922 in Agua Dulce, Texas to Robert Samuel and Daisy Mae (Lynn) Orr. Bob entered the U.S. Army as a trainee to be a tank driver. Bob was discharged and became a heavy equipment operator in Bandera. He married Marjorie MacNaughton on April 1, 1945 at the First Baptist Church in Medina. Together, they opened a bakery while in Bandera. They moved to Victoria where Bob worked construction and was hired by Alcoa in Port Lavaca. They later moved to Jewitt and got interested in the ranching and cattle business while commuting to Rockdale to work at Alcoa. He was Supervisor of the Construction of homes in Rockdale's Westwood Addition and worked as a Master Carpenter for Alcoa. Around 1951, they moved to Rockdale and eventually were founding members of Meadowbrook Baptist Church where he served as a Deacon. Bob was very active in building the Tabernacle for the Highland Lakes Baptist Encampment. He built a greenhouse in Rockdale and grew mums in several different colors for local flower shops for Homecoming. Bob and Marjorie loved to travel and had visited all 50 states and several continents. His love for fishing took him to the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans, Alaska, Gulf of Mexico and the North Sea. Bob passed away Wednesday afternoon June 6th, in the Richards Memorial Hospital with his family at his side. He reached the age of 90. He was preceded in death by his wife, Marjorie on October 17, 2010. Their son, Robert Orr, Jr. on July 7, 1976, and a sister, Ella Mary Ann Orr Smith in 2010. Surviving; Daughter, Betty Margaret Orr Ferguson and husband Willard L. of Rockdale. Grandchildren; Bethany Leann Ferguson of Austin, Abbie Larissa Ferguson of Round Rock. Two great granddaughters.
