He was the 10th of 12 children born to Robert (1885-1972) and Alma (Klagmann) (1894-1979) Wiederhold. Cedar Creek in Burleson County became the next home for the family, and it was here that Robert started First Grade at Hoskin School. In the Fall of 1938 when Robert was in the Second Grade, the family moved to Kubena Place on the outskirts of Dime Box and he attended Dime Box School until he was in the Tenth Grade. After two years on the Kubena Place, the family moved to the Fox Place located on Highway 21 about three miles west of Old Dime Box.

They began their married life in Dime Box and were members of St. John Lutheran Church in Dime Box. Robert and Alice were blessed with three daughters, Gail, Penny, and Jill.

In January 1968, Robert was accepted into The Texas A&M Game Warden Academy and was commissioned as a Texas Game Warden on June 19, 1968. He was assigned to Burleson County, Texas so he and his Family moved to Caldwell at that time. He served as Burleson County Game Warden until his retirement in 1993 after 25 years of Service.
