

Ronald Gilbert Clark

September 12, 1966 - April 19, 2025

Ronnie “Bones” Clark 58, passed away on April 19 2025, in Pearland, Texas. He was born on September 12, 1966, in Corpus Christi, Texas, to Roger and Judithe Clark.

A master mechanic and true jack of all trades, Bones could fix just about anything. Whether it was a car, a TV, or anything in between—if it was broken, he saw it as a challenge. He was known not only for his ability to repair nearly anything but also for his endless bank of knowledge, both useful and “useless,” as he liked to say. He had a mind full of movie quotes, music trivia, and random facts that made every conversation more interesting.

Bones had a contagious smile and a one-of-a-kind personality. His sense of humor lit up any room, and his willingness to help anyone in need was a true testament to his character. He was a loving father, husband, brother, uncle and friend—someone who made a lasting impact on everyone lucky enough to know him.

He was preceded in death by his mother, Judithe Pinson, and father, Roger Clark.

He is survived by his children, Heather, Daniel, Dustin, Dalton and their mother Jeannie; Landon, Cody and their mother Jennifer; his grandson, Zackariah; his sisters, Sandi, Sheli, Margi, and Terri. He also leaves behind many nieces, nephews, and countless friends who will cherish his memory forever.

Bones services will be held on Saturday May 3, 2025, at Phillips and Luckey funeral home in Caldwell Tx 77836. Visitation 11am-1pm and services from 1pm-2pm.

“ I've way too many memories of Ron to name only one. The news of his passing saddens me. I lost a brother in Ron and a day later on the 20th I lost my oldest brother, Robert. I was remembering a time in Waco when both of you were visiting only a week ago. May you rest in peace. My heart goes out to his family and friends.
