“ Ronnie was my first cousin. He was about 10 years older than me. Our Grandpa Domann had to be in the hospital in Giddings. I was too little to know why. My Mom needed to sit with him overnight so I went to spend the night with Ronnie's family. They had the windows open and there were coyotes howling. I was scared to death. Ronnie came and sat on the floor by my bed and held my hand and stroked my head until I was asleep. I wish I would have told him how very much that meant to me.
