Rosa Maria Rangel de Lara was born on June 9, 1951 in Monterrey, N.L. Mexico. She was the daughter of Jesus Maria Rangel and Maria Inez Espinoza. She married Luciano Lara on December 28, 1967 in Monterrey. She and her family moved to Giddings in 1981. Rosa, or “Mama Rosa” as she was known by many, worked as a cook and a custodian at Giddings High School for many years. She also cooked at Schubert’s Restaurant and Texas Grill in Giddings. She had been a member of the First Assembly of God in Giddings and was currently a member of Sendas Antiguas in Giddings. Rosa enjoyed cooking and baking cakes. She always made more food than was needed to make sure everyone had enough to eat. Most of Giddings knew how good her cakes tasted. She had a true caregiving nature and volunteered at the nursing home taking care of the residents. Rosa loved going to yard sales and would give away the things she purchased to the needy. She had a generous and giving heart and freely shared her possessions and her faith with others.

Rosa passed away the afternoon of Friday, June 14, 2019 at the Christopher House in Austin.
