The family will be present Sunday afternoon from 3:00 p.m. until 6:00 p.m.

On April 12, 2023, Rose Ann (Petrash) Lehmann was called home to be in the eternal loving arms of our Savior Jesus.

Beloved wife, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend, Rose was born on January 3, 1943 in Hallettsville, Texas. She was baptized on January 10. She attended St. Rose of Lima Catholic School and Bishop Forest High School in Schulenburg and moved to Houston shortly thereafter where she met Charles Lehmann of Winchester on a blind date on Friday the 13th.

She was confirmed into the Lutheran faith on December 20, 1964 at Immanuel Lutheran Church in Houston. Her confirmation verse was Revelation 2:10, "Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life.”

Charles and Rose married on February 6, 1965 at Immanuel Lutheran Church and spent 58 years in an abiding marriage and friendship, living in Houston, Richwood, College Station, Victoria, and the family farm in Winchester, where they raised three daughters. Charles and Rose were longtime members of St. Michael's Lutheran Church.

A professional homemaker, wife, and mother, true to her name, Rose found great peace and serenity in gardening, yard work, and the solitude of farm life, spending years providing tender care to roses and flowering plants and was a staunch advocate for all animals and birds. In good health, she was a prolific baker and made sure her family had three home-cooked meals each day. She also played endless games with her daughters, family, and grandchildren and was a fierce domino champion and lover of Czech music.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Felix and Annie Petrash, and her sister, Virginia Petrash Maly. She is survived by her best friend and doting husband, Charles Lehmann; daughters, Denise Becker and husband Glenn of Victoria, Sheila Bojorquez and husband Alan of Austin, and Jennifer Harper and husband Matt of Georgetown.

Known lovingly as Moe, she is survived by her precious grandchildren, Trenton, Cameron, Caroline, Kylie, Wit, Bryn, Chase, and Sarah and their fur babies, who were all frequent and welcomed visitors to the farm, where a lifetime of happy memories were made.

Rose is also survived by a sister-in-law, Linda Noack of Smithville; brother, Tony and wife Agnes Petrash of Houston, and sister, Helen and husband David Cathey, also of Houston. She leaves behind a nephew and nieces, Chad Petrash, Crystal Guillory, Courtney Chapman, Cassandra Cathey all of Houston and Cecelia Young of Purmela, and their sweet children, Rose's great nieces and nephews.

Serving as pallbearers will be Glenn Becker, Trenton Becker, Cameron Becker, Wit Hatton, Chad Petrash, and Jacob Greer.

If you would like to honor Rose's earthly life, please donate to St. Michael's Lutheran Church in Winchester or to the angels at Hospice Brazos Valley, who brought Rose, Charles, and their family utmost care and compassion in her final months, weeks, days, and hours. We are forever grateful.

“ *Dear Denise & Family,
I am so sorry to hear of your mother's passing & will be lifting each of you in prayer that you may find comfort in your many memories. Your mother sounds like she would be a true contender for Mother/Grandmother of the year. Rely on those memories when things feel unbearable; Mother will always be close at hand.*
