

Roy Franklin Havemann

February 2, 1939 - January 20, 2022

Roy Franklin Havemann, 82 passed away on Thursday, January 20th, 2022 at his residence in Deanville, Texas.

A public visitation will be held on Tuesday, January 25th between 6:00 – 8:00 pm at Phillips & Luckey Funeral Home in Caldwell, Texas. Funeral Services will be held on Wednesday, January 26th at 1:00 pm at St. John's Lutheran Church in Deanville, Texas. Pastor Terry Bage will officiate. Interment will follow in St. John's Cemetery.

Roy was born on February 2, 1939, to Elroy Havemann and Lena Mae Schoppe Havemann in the Birch Community, Lyons, Texas. He attended Lutheran High in Houston, Texas. Roy served in the Army National Guard for 3 years as a master sharpshooter. He started working at a young age in the cabinet and trim business, and later became a master and is well known in our area, as a custom cabinet and trim carpenter. He eventually founded RF Construction and becoming his own building contractor. You can ask anyone in the county, and they will say that he remodeled or built their cabinets. Roy is even known for building the double entrance doors, with blue crosses embedded in them, at St. John's Lutheran Church, where he has been an active member many years. He believed in, and loved the Lord; he would sit and read his Bible most mornings. Roy loved his children and was so proud of each of them, and all of their accomplishments.

After retiring, he was often seen patrolling the roads of Deanville with his faithful furry companion, Buddy, riding shotgun in his golfcart. He enjoyed working on his jigsaw puzzles, taking even the most difficult puzzles and making others look like amateurs. Roy was also an avid domino player. He enjoyed playing 42 and moon with his boys. He loved old country music, playing the guitar, and reminiscing about old times with friends and family nearby. If you know Roy, you know that he always had a joke ready to be told to anyone who would listen. He had a green thumb and enjoyed gardening as well as raising his chickens, which meant family and friends were gifted produce and eggs quite often.

Roy is preceded in death by his parents, Elroy and Lena Mae (Schoppe) Havemann; sister, Ethel Frenzel; daughter-in-law, Janet Havemann; grandson, Brandon Graham.

Survivors include his wife of 20 years, Donna Havemann of Deanville; his children, Roy Gene and Suzanne Havemann of Shreveport, LA, Russell and Vera Havemann of Montgomery, Renee and Royce Janca of Deanville, Rodney and Christie Havemann of Caldwell and Mikeala Havemann (Anthony Van Dyke) of Giddings; grandchildren, Shane (Edi) Havemann, Troy (Gloria) Havemann, Michael (Kathleen) Havemann, Jennifer (David) Burns, Calvin Havemann, Ashley Braden, Nick Havemann, Colby Havemann, Zachery (Sarah) Janca and Tristen Janca; great-grandchildren, Sabrina (Jaylan) Cheshire, Leah Havemann, Dylan Havemann, Taylor Havemann, Peyton Braden, Ryan Burns, Samantha Burns, Brantley Brewer, Jillian Burns, Ella Brewer & Wyatt Burns; great-great grandchild, Deacon Cheshire.

Memorials may be made in his honor to St. John's Lutheran Church Memorial Fund.

Honoring his life, Roy will be led to his final resting place by pallbearers, Shane Havemann, Troy Havemann, Michael Havemann, Nick Havemann, Colby Havemann, Zachery Janca, Tristen Janca & David Burns.

Serving as honorary pallbearers are Calvin Havemann, Vernon Havemann, Royce Janca, Nathan Kerdachi.

“ Roy shared a lot with me. Bits of his life, now and then. Gardening, Yard eggs, Jokes. Phone calls. Country life. His doings. This and that, too! 'Roy - you will surely be missed, and I will take comfort in having known you.' ... a true Country Gentleman. The best thing Roy shared with me was his friendship.

“ There is no doubt in my mind, Roy has entered the portals of heaven. His faith was evident. He was a student of the Bible and knew salvation was his through the blood of Jesus. He is now at peace in heaven with saints gone on before and saints to follow. ”
