My sincere condolences to Pam Morton and her family. We met Russell and Pam a few years ago. They were so funny and sweet. A pleasure to be around them. A very special couple. To Pam, I, too lost my husband Roy Aug. 8, 2016. I know very well what you're going thru. I just thank God that they're not in all that pain. I feel pretty selfish to want my husband back here with me, till I realize that God has been merciful. Love you, Nora H.

“ I have such sweet fond memories of Russell. We grew up together lived close enough we would ride our dirt bikes over to each other's house and have a blast. Once we started driving we'd hang out at dime box or rockdale dances and what a dancer but, before we could leave for a dance I remember we couldn't leave until his golden air was perfect never a piece out of place and always starched jeans gave a new meaning that he had to pass the stand up on there own before he would put them on. I haven't seen him in a few years my heart is truly heavy with this loss. Rest in peace my dear friend and may all your pains be lifted. And may the perpetual light shine upon you my dear friend. Rest in peace. Prayers to all his family. I am so sorry for. Your loss.
