September 7, 1923 - February 7, 2021

Ruth Lee Price Rosenthal, age 97 of Thorndale, passed away peacefully in her home after a long and full life on Sunday, February 7, 2021. Ruth Lee Price was born September 7, 1923 in Chriesman, Texas to Owen Webb Price and Essie Cox Price.

Ruth was preceded in death by her husband, Herman Rosenthal, her son, Bob L. Rosenthal and her parents and sister. She is survived by her son and daughter-in-law Lt. Col. Edward and Yerma Rosenthal, New Braunfels, Texas; her daughter-in-law Deanie B. Rosenthal, Monroe, Georgia; her grandchildren, Dr. Mark and Pam Rosenthal, Palmetto, Florida, Dr. Tara and Woody Hodges, Queen Creek, Arizona, Erica and Mark Seamans, Boerne, Texas, and Paul and Jessica Rosenthal, Monroe, Georgia; and, her thirteen great-grandchildren, Dallas, Mark Paul, Anabelle, Josh, Reagan, Tyler, Sophie, and Landry, all of Palmetto, Florida, Greyson and Caroline of Queen Creek, Arizona, Madison of Boerne, Texas and Bella and Emma of Monroe, Georgia.

Ruth attended Texas Women's University in Denton, Texas receiving her Bachelor's Degree in Education. That degree began a long and successful career teaching in multiple school districts in Texas for forty-two years. She was a beloved teacher to countless students in Midway, Thorndale and Thrall schools. Her favorite age group to teach was middle school, and her favorite subject to teach was reading comprehension. The lasting impact Ruth had on so many that she taught can be seen through lifelong friendships she kept with many of her students through the years, all the way until her passing on Sunday when her favorite student of her entire teaching career spent time with her playing her favorite gospel hymns for her.

“ Mrs. Rosenthal was one of my junior high teachers in Thrall. She was highly respected and expected a lot from her students. I had an opportunity to visit with her this past December, and even though she could be very serious, she had a humor about her that always came through. She loved life, and she loved to hear Pam sing. You will be missed. Condolences to the family.
