“ I met Ruth when she was at the Nursing Home in Kingsville, Texas. My Mom and Ruth were roommates. Ruth soon became a part of our family. Although my parents arguing sometimes drove Ruth crazy but she still loved us. Ruth loved to color, I have one of her pages up in the shop. Ruth loved to play Bingo. She was pretty lucky. After my mom came home I still went to visit Ruth, she was family. I enjoyed my time with Ruth. I was sad when she moved but knew it was what Ruth needed. She needed to be home and with family. Ruth would call me, I enjoyed our talks. My sister and I took a trip visiting Aunts and Uncles around Texas and yes Ruth was one of our stops. She was family. Ruth will always be in my heart. She is one of a kind. My prayers are with Ruth and her family. ❤️🙏
