

Sam Hollan

February 15, 1934 - February 4, 2014

Graveside services for Sam Hollan, 79 of Caldwell will be 2:00 p.m. Saturday, February 8, 2014 in the Pleasant Retreat Cemetery near Thorndale with Military Honors. Chaplain Nate Lawrence officiating. Sam Hollan was born February 15, 1934 in Georgetown to John Franklin and Oma Beatrice (Rhea) Hollan. He has lived in Caldwell since 1999, moving from Rockdale. Sam served in the U.S. Navy during the Korean Conflict. He was a truck driver and a heavy equipment operator working for several different contractors. He and Annie Mae Smith were married May 12, 1976 in Mexico. He loved animals, fishing, hunting and football. Sam passed away Tuesday, February 4, 2014 at his home near Caldwell. He was preceded in death by his son, Dannie Kay Hollan; a brother, Leroy Hollan and his parents. Surviving is his wife Annie Hollan of Caldwell. Three sons, Sam Rhea Hollan, Jr., Robert Rhea Hollan and Robert Lee Hollan. Two daughters, May Delane Hollan and Stacy Lehmann. Three step sons, Leonard Winche, Talbert Perez and Nicholas Rowan. Step daughter, Mary Ann Winche. Three grandchildren and two great grandchildren.