“ Sandy's passing came far too soon. She was a joy. She always seemed to have a twinkle in her eye and a big smile on her face...no matter what was happening. She had a million ideas for fun and bringing friends together. A very rare friend who made you feel special. We ache for Lee, Chris and family, and won't forget her.

“ My heart is broken. Sandy has been a friend since 1992. She and Leon were the perfect couple. We had such a great time working together in Albuquerque. We kept in touch. We loved their visit with us a few months ago. As usual she was upbeat, funny, and beautiful. This world lost a precious lady and God gained a special Angel. Our prayers are with Leon, Chris and extended family.

“ We remember the laughter! She made gatherings so much fun. To her faithful, loving husband Leon, beloved son Chris and family, and great extended family, we send our deepest condolences. The angels have gained a precious soul. I'm sure she will keep heaven chuckling. With love, Jill Stimson and family

“ My beautiful friend, Sandy, was my lifelong friend. We met at the age of 16 and our friendship has lasted through the years. Sandy brought love and laughter to me and so many other friends in her life. Her close friends, and even the parents of her friends, loved her and she brought joy to those whose lives she touched. We both laughed together until tears poured from our eyes. I will love her forever. She was blessed in having a wonderful husband, Leon, and son Chris and then her grandchildren. She loved them all so much and they loved her and for that I am so grateful. Not everyone has the opportunity to share such a wonderful friendship. We had it all and we knew it.

“ Sandy loved Maui and insisted on getting her "whale fix" as often as possible, sometimes 2 - 3 whale watches a day. We celebrated her birthday every year at her favorite restaurant overlooking the ocean. Sandy's "smile" lit up a room and everyone loved Sandy. She was a considerate caring person and it was obvious that her chosen career as a flight attendant was an excellent choice. As we ended every parting.....
