Sandy was saved and filled with the Holy Spirit at age seven. She married Gerald Don Whaley in 1956. She and Gerald were the proud owners of the Dish Barn in Houston, Texas. They opened their doors in 1967 and just loved working with customers. Sandy was often asked to assist with decorating people's homes because her store was so beautiful. Gerald and Sandy went on to open Sandy's Hallmark in 1977, also in Houston. She was also an avid Nascar fan, she especially loved Jimmy Johnson. She loved her time reading the bible and was a Sunday school teacher for the second and fourth grade girls at Christian Temple Assembly of God Church. Sandy also enjoyed gardening both vegetables and beautiful flowers. Her family was most important to her and she loved attending sporting events with all of her grandchildren.

Sandy is preceded in death by her parents, E.J. Bandy and Olga Aileen Bandy.

She is survived by her daughter, Sonna LeLaurin and her husband, Tim; grandchildren, Melinda LeLaurin, Sharon Hollier and her husband Nick; great grandchildren, Justin, Jordan, Jared and Nick Jr. She is also survived by her great-great grandchildren, Ty, Aleya and Milani.

Sandy will be remembered as a beautiful soul, a wonderful mother and “Nana” and friend to all. She was a loving, caring, selfless person that always put others before herself. Her love for writing beautiful cherished pieces of literature, as well as heartfelt musical pieces are memories that will be forever cherished.

“ I always considered you as my 2nd mom. You were always kind and understanding to both Tom and I. You never sugar coated anything which I needed. You will be so missed but we know you are standing up straight, smiling big, and watching over us. You don't have to worry about your daughter, she is my sister and I will always be there for her and get her through this hard time. We love you mom, drop in sometime and give us a nudge to keep us in line.
