

Sarah Marie Guthrie

March 13, 1948 - April 8, 2026

Sarah Marie Guthrie, age 78, passed away peacefully surrounded by her family at Baylor Scott and White Medical Center in Temple, Texas on Wednesday, April 8, 2026. Born March 13, 1948, in Robstown, Texas, Sarah lived a life that focused on her family, friends, and animals. Sarah's life was defined by the deep love she held for her family and the warmth she extended to her friends. She was a constant source of support and kindness, always putting the needs of others before her own. Sarah had a profound affection for animals, often finding peace and joy in their company.

Memorial services will hold on April 25, 2026, at 10 a.m. at Locklin Cemetery in San Gabriel, Texas with her son-in-law, Shey Lovelace, officiating.

Sarah deeply loved her time spent with family and friends. She loved hosting holiday dinners with everyone gathered around her table. She had a love for orphan animals and horses. Her gentle and caring nature was often seen in the love she gave to the strays that wandered her way.

Most of her years were spent being a homemaker and caring for her family. She attended Milam Cowboy Church until her health prevented her from getting out. She had a fervent love for gospel classics and sang along with them while cooking and cleaning. She was incredibly crafty, showing her creativity through everything from woodwork to knitting. There was nothing she could not do if she set her mind to it.

Sarah is survived by the love of her life, Jimmy Guthrie of Thorndale, Texas of almost 60 years; two daughters, Sharon Guthrie of Thorndale, Texas and Dawn Lovelace (Shey) of Brownsville, Tennessee; three grandchildren, Chelsey Heil (Vinny), Jacob Lovelace (Veronica), and Chloe Lovelace; three great-grandchildren Kaelyn Heil, Christian Heil, and Stefano Lovelace. She is survived by her brother Freddie Wilson (Shena), her brother-in-law James Dodd, and her sister-in-law Jan Ellis (Jim). She is also survived by numerous nephews and nieces. She is preceded in death by her parents, Fred Bernard and Margaret Cowan Wilson, her brother Nathan Wilson, and her sister Maxine Dodd.

Sarah's love for the Lord was shown by her kindness, creativity, and unconditional love that was shown to others. She will be deeply missed by her family, her friends, and the many four-legged companions she cared for throughout her life.

“ I love you eternally, Granny. Thank you for all the memories of going to Rockdale for Walmart and McDonald’s. For stopping at literally every McDonald’s from here to Tennessee. For saving me from turkeys, grasshoppers, flying insects, and cow poop. For sleeping me in back room that I swear was haunted, and I know you knew! For the endless Scooby Doo marathons following by your soaps, the 4 wheeler adventures we went on, all the trips to old cemeteries to see what we could find. For being the core memory of my childhood. For the unrelenting love. You loved me and the babies so much. I hope you knew I was with you, and I hope you heard every word I told you before you left this earth. I can only hope that you’re there to greet me when the Good Lord calls me home. I miss you so much.
