“ This was so shocking to me because I just talk to her at Walmart and she was so friendly and happy every time I saw her. Always good to people, especially if she knew you. She will totally be missed but not forgotten and may God be with her family in their time of sorrow. Cheryl Moore was my classmate in the Class of 1981. I pray God will strengthen you all.

“ What a beautiful lady of God she was. We will miss her so much. The first memory I have of her is seeing her long, beautiful hair and attentive eyes in church service. Church was her home. She was there and a part of it all. When I was a lil girl, I remember being so excited when SHE was the one teaching Bible class. She was very understanding and was so kind . She was so patient with us. Never scolded us , just redirected us to what we needed to focus on. And she was a smile that was always there. She had a beautiful laugh. I just really enjoyed seeing her, whether at church services growing up , or at Walmart or the visits I had back at church as an adult . Oh and I remember at game nights watching her. Seems like she just really had fun with everyone doing that. I know that her family's hearts are hurting an unbelievable ache to lose such a joy, but may they take comfort while she rests in the arms of God, our Father, for someday to be united with them again, in God's time. We will miss you Sarah.
