Sharon Denise Bridges was born October 13, 1970 in Austin, Texas to Jack Dean and Charlotte Wagoner. She attended Del Valle High School where she graduated in 1988. Sharon always made sure everyone knew she was “daddy’s girl”. Sharon became a diabetic when she was 13 years old and since that time had dealt with so many issues that diabetes can bring. She would always keep a cheerful outlook on her life, and still pursued her many dreams. She loved animals, and always had a dog (or two or three!) in her life and those were spoiled rotten! She also loved guns and shooting them...and thought that if you had a dog then you should also have a gun and know how to use it! In her younger years, Sharon pursued being a private investigator and a bounty hunter. Sharon also loved to travel and lived in several different states during her life. She loved arts and crafts and would always have a new project in mind.

Sharon passed away the evening of Tuesday, May 22, 2018 at St. David's Emergency Center in Bastrop.

Sharon was preceded in death by her father Dean Wagoner; her grandmother, "Granny" Jones; grandfathers, NJ Jones and Ollie Wagoner; an uncle, Robert Daywitt, and her cousin, Danny Daywitt.
