“ I first met Shirley when I was about 12. I went to school with my Aunt Frankie and was so shy and so scared I would not talk to anyone. Shirley came and introduced herself and made me feel right at home. I developed a real case of hero worship that day and it never went away. She was always good to me and always took the time to speak even when she was so busy she could barely draw a breath. But, that was her way. Once a friend, always a friend. I loved her.

I loved Miss Shirley. I met her when I was 22. I worked as a waitress and dishwasher for her and my mom, Tomboy. We had a lot of good times. Most of them have passed on, Heaven will have the best coffee and burgers now.

“ I sure miss the Bullock's. They ran the best restaurant in Milano. I loved talking with them, as those were some of the best times I had with them. She will be missed by all and never forgotten for sure. Great folks. My prayers and thoughts are with you and your family and my condolences to the family.
