“ I commend you, my dear Sipriana to almighty God, and entrust you to your Creator.

May you rest in the arms of the Lord who formed you from the dust of the earth.

May holy Mary, the angels and all the saints welcome you now that you have gone forth from this life.

May Christ who was crucified for you, bring you freedom and peace.

May Christ who died for you admit you into his garden of paradise.

May Christ, the true Shepherd, embrace you as one of his flock.

May he forgive all your sins, and set you among those he has chosen.

May you see your Redeemer face to face, and enjoy the vision of God, forever

Amen

“ Sipriana was married to my brother in law. My memories of her are that she was a very friendly person, She like talking if you start a conversation with her she came across as a very honest and open person. She made you fell comfortable. Our families knew each other, My parents and her parents were friends so you can say that we knew each other most of our lives. I guess it was meant to be that we were going to be sister in laws.

She will be missed very much and I know that God welcome her home with open arms.

Goodbye for now and you will always live in your in our Hearts
