“ John 11:25 - Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:

We will not question God work, but we all miss you very much mama especially. When I sit back and think about how you treated me and Erica like we were your daughters, we could call on you before we can call on our biological father. And the kids they miss you so much, you were the one that kept them entertained lol. I just know you made it to heaven :) watch over us, (your family) and we will meet again one day. Happy Birthday Stacy we love you and miss you dearly.

“ It's really almost been a whole year, and boy do we miss your presence. You know we could call you even before we can call our own father. Boy do the kids miss you, and mama every time I look into her eyes I see hurt and pain. Most days for her are so hard, because no matter what the situation was mama loved you and now that your gone she feels so down and depressed. Me and Erica don't even know what to do now, its like nothing makes her feel up anymore. I don't want mama to give up, but I feel like she at a point where she wants to. I pray for her to gain understanding and acceptance in the time of hard grief. I can only imagine how she tries to hide the hurt and the pain. I cant say that I know how that feels. What I do know is God said lean on his word when in doubt, Lord I will continue to praise you Lord and ask you to help my mother heal in Jesus name! God you said ask and thou will be done Lord, I asking you to give my mom a little comfort please, we need her and if she keeps going the rate shes going she wont be around long.
Well Happy Valentines Stacy <3 we love you and may you rest in peace.

Thanks
Chelly

“ Stacy we have had a sad year, so many people losing their lives. I guess this means tell the ones that you love, that you love them everyday. Mama's been sick lately I cant imagine life without her. You were right me and Erica are so spoiled, all mama ever did was give us everything we wanted no matter how she got it. We love you Stacy and save a place for us up there, and get them dice ready lol because one day we will meet again

“ It's been about 2 1/2 months since you left us. It still feels unreal, I wish heaven had a phone so the kids can call you, Stacy. They miss you, we miss you, mama misses you. You played a major part in our lives and children's lives. One day we will see you again in the land of the living, no more suffering, no more pain just all the family at the alter with Our Lord. God I pray that you still give my mother strength to get through the hard times, some days are harder than others for mama, but I promise we will be with her every step of the way. God has a purpose and a plan for us all. We love you and watch over us.

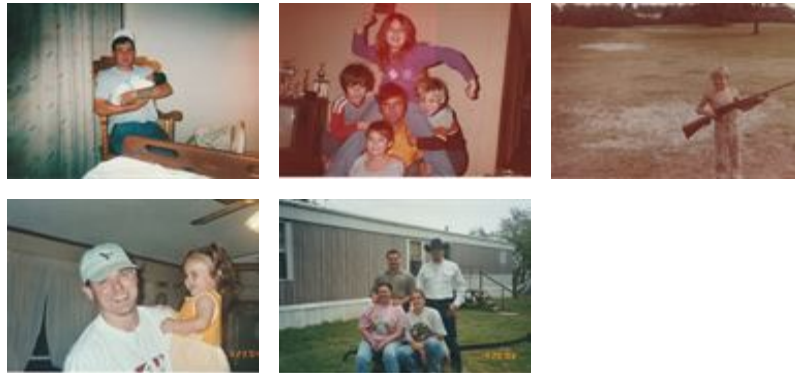

Love,
Chelly
