Steven Ray Schulze was born on October 28, 1966, in Smithville, Texas to Paul and Laura (Zoch) Schulze.

Steven was a hard-working man. He had many hobbies such as doing farm work, hunting, fishing, grilling, driving his truck, and spending time with family and friends. He worked at Pace Fertilizer for 21 years. Steven was a volunteer firefighter for Ledbetter Fire Department and helped bring back the lane of lights. He was a loyal Aggie fan. Steve was a kind and giving soul at heart. He reached out a helping hand to many people throughout his lifetime without any expectations of repayment, praise or recognition. He was proud of his family; his two daughters, son-in-law and grandchildren, and was proud of the life that he built for himself in LaGrange. His best time of peace and contentment was when he was out in the fields and pastures taking care of his cattle. He will be loved and missed until the cows come home.
