

Sue Cook

November 26, 1951 - February 23, 2021

Funeral services for Sue Cook, 69 of Lexington, Texas, are scheduled for 10:00 a.m. on Saturday, February 27, 2021 at the First Baptist Church in Lexington with Brother Casey Goetz and Brother David Atwood officiating. Burial will follow in the Adina Cemetery. Visitation will be held on Friday, February 26, 2021 from 7:00 a.m. until 8:00 p.m. and on Saturday, February 27, 2021 from 7:00 a.m. until 8:00 a.m. at Phillips and Luckey Funeral Home in Giddings. The family will be present for visitation Friday evening from 5:00 p.m. until 7:00 p.m.

Sue Cook was born on November 26, 1951 in Cameron, Texas to William "Bill" Everett Simpson and Ester (Hobbs) Simpson. She graduated from Lexington High School. Sue became a member of Tanglewood Baptist Church in 1969 and it is there that she married Kenneth Cook on April 20, 1985. She was a caregiver her whole life, whether she was taking care of her family or working as a dialysis nurse for Austin Diagnostic Clinic in Giddings. Her grandchildren were her world. She enjoyed watching them play sports, going on vacations, and spending as much time with them as she could. They loved singing silly songs together. Her favorite places to vacation were the beach, New England states during the fall to watch the leaves change, and Australia. The time she spent on the mountain slopes were usually in the lodge drinking coffee that she loved so much. Family reunions were important and she made sure her family was represented at the gatherings. Yellow was her favorite color and she enjoyed sunflowers and yellow roses. She enjoyed working in her yard and tending to her flowers. Sue loved shopping and would always buy more than she needed just to get the “deal”. She loved the Lord and her church family at Tanglewood Baptist. Over the years, she taught Sunday school, was on the Kitchen Committee, spent countless hours cleaning, and for the past two years was a huge supporter of the new building project.

Sue passed away the afternoon of Tuesday, February 23, 2021 in Austin, Texas with her family by her side.

She is preceded in death by her parents, William “Bill” and Ester Simpson; husband, Kenneth Cook; son, Nathan Biehle; grandson, Hunter Biehle; brother and sister-in-law, Harold and Nena Simpson, and father-in-law, Harlan Cook.

Sue is survived by her children, Russell and Tina Biehle of Lexington, Paul and Jennifer Biehle of Lexington, Carly Cook of Lexington, Jesse and April Cook of LaPorte, and Melissa and Jason Forgey of Pasadena; eleven grandchildren, Allyson Biehle, Maci Biehle, Mason Biehle, Will Cook, Tristen Forgey, Micah Forgey, Jacee and Chase Davis, Alivia Forgey, Darian Cook, Aleya Cook, and Nolan Cook; one great grandson, Jensen Davis; one brother, Roy and Diane Simpson of Lexington; mother-in-law, Lita Cook of Tyler, and many nieces, nephews, cousins, and special friends.

Serving as pallbearers will be Mark Strain, Troy Simpson, John Woods, Dennis Cisneros, JR Clark, and Kenneth Hall.

Memorials may be made to Tanglewood Baptist Church Building Fund at <https://www.onlinechurchsolutions.com/TanglewoodBC/> or to the charity of one’s choice.

The very first day that I met Sue we became instant friends. And in no time we became BEST FRIENDS. We worked together in dialysis for many years. We had girl weekends. Went to see the Astros. I don't know quiet what to do without her here but I will carry her in my heart as long as I live until we see each other again. She absolutely loved her children and her grandchildren. She is with Hunter again and her precious Kenny and her mom and dad. Her daddy called her Little Red Squirrel and gave me the title of Silver Fox. I didn't even have gray hair back then but you should see me now. Oh Sue-I miss you so. Come to me in my dreams. Please. I will always love you-remember you and carry you in my heart. Love you forever and ever. BJ Sonstein
