Susan was born on December 21, 1961 to James E. Williams and Lillian M. (Odstrcil) Williams in Bryan, Texas. She was one of four siblings and graduated from Caldwell High School in 1980. After graduation she received her cosmetology license from Charles & Sues School of Hair Design in Bryan. She spent several years providing this service to many in the community.

“ Susan’s radiant smile and boisterous laugh would light up a room. She was a pharmacy tech where I worked and I loved her characteristic greeting, “ How IS ‘ya?” She loved listening to music while she worked and her presence brightened my day. She is missed.

“ I don't remember a time in my life when you weren't there. You got me out of my comfort zone, so now I have 2 tattoos (one that matches the one on your right arm) and to sing karaoke. All our adventures were well planned and never went according to that plan, but we made the best of each one. The laughs we shared are what is getting me through this because I'm gonna miss your laugh, you calling me a heifer, and flipping me the bird. You were more than my friend, you were what our tattoos say, sisters. I love you, I will miss you, but I know you will be at the pearly gates waiting on me and yelling because I'm the one who is late this time.

Susan worked for us years ago at Kountry Korner Grocery for a short time! She always had a smile on her face and we loved her when she was a part of the store and also afterwards when she was a customer! May she rest in peace!
