I reviewed memory of my wife, Suzanne, and she is truly my woman. I still think of her often. I do miss her touch of her loving arms and hands. I miss her touch. She kept me awake in our church services with those pleasant touches. Suzanne, I am still practicing my piano lessons. I want to play the piano just like you. Maybe not as well, but I want to play it for you. I was a very lucky man to have you as my partner in life.

“ Suzanne and I (her husband, Vance) met in a drama play (I Remember Momma). In the play, I played the role of Suzanne's husband in the play. I think our drama coach was finding ways for us to be together. We were man and wife in several plays at Wayland Baptist College. Suzanne was also the secretary to the Speech and Drama Department of the college.

“ Always enjoyed sharing a West Texas moment with Suzanne because she knew what I was talking about, like Spudnuts, oh did we wish for some! She also knew what real wind blowing and sandstorms were like! She was a very special lady who was always trying to help those around her. Loved her smile, her listening and laughter. I miss you Suzanne!

“ Mom, you are everything to us. Our silver lining, our brightest shining star, our anchor in the storm. You've done so much. You've been so much more than my best friend. You are my healer and protector; My greatest alli in everything I do. I carry you with me always. You will be a part of everything I do as an individual and I'm sure as we do as a family. I couldn't live any other way. I love you forever... <3
