“Hearing word of Tatum's death was difficult. Allen and Kayla our faith reminds us that death is a time of darkness. That is reality. Yet that darkness is not permanent. God is permanent and nothing separates us from God's Love. Your grief is real and so is the light of God's love. Our numbered days do not always reflect God's eternal time yet faith helps us believe even in death and darkness. May God comfort you and sustain you with the God's good news of life especially at death. God's peace be with you in these days. -- Gary & Sharon Kleypas
