“ I worked with Terisa back in the 80s at Circle K. She was such a nice person and talked about her family all the time. I'm so very sorry for your loss.

“ I remember going to the Frosch's house back in the 60's when we were all so young. A blue collar family of nine members meant they didn't have much money but there was a lot of love, they knew what sharing meant. I was always excited when my family would go and visit Terisa's family, it meant an afternoon of playing hide and seek or riding an old bicycle down the then under construction 610 north loop. Mostly it was baby-boomer children making do with what they had the most of - companionship. I was closer to Terisa's brothers than I was to her but I will always remember her. It was sad that her life ended way too soon after so many health problems. Never take for granted the life that God has given us, always hug and pray with what family members and friends you may have because they may not be there tomorrow.

“ Terisa, one of my favorite memories happened when we were very young, maybe 6 or 7. We had come to visit at the old house on, was it Wild Rock???

Anyway, there was a new box of kittens on your front porch. They had just opened their eyes and were the perfect size to tuck into a toy purse or just hold on your lap. I remember thinking how lucky you were to have kittens and how lovely that you shared them so eagerly with me.

That same eagerness seems to have followed you through life. You always had a smile and a laugh, no matter what the circumstances were. You will be missed.

“ Cindi, and all the family,
Rodney and I are deeply sorry for your loss.
The last time we saw Terisa, she was doing well and smiling that smile! We know she will be missed terribly. May the Good Lord give you comfort and strength in this time of loss.
