Tiffany Layne Prestridge

April 9, 1976 – April 9, 2025

Tiffany Layne Prestridge, 49, of Rockdale, TX, passed away on April 9, 2025.

Born on April 9,

1976, in Houston, TX, Tiffany was known for her unwavering love and support.

She was a devoted wife, mother, and grandmother who served as a mentor and role model not only to her own children but to many others in the community and within her family.

Tiffany inspired them to pursue their dreams and always encouraged them to be their best selves.

Tiffany often spoke of the love and devotion her husband, Sean, had for her.

She proudly

shared the talents of Hannah and Curt, spending countless hours supporting their journeys.

When Dylan left home to travel the world for his job, she beamed with pride, and when he returned to start a family with Emily, she was even prouder. Tucker was her fighter, even before birth, and she was amazed by his accomplishments, both academically and physically. Tiffany was bursting with love and excitement when Tucker officially asked Nicole to be part of their family. In 2010, Tiffany welcomed four more into her family and was thrilled by Trenton's passion for fishing, Jayden's wit, Jordan's impeccable style, and Kailynn's diva-like ability to dance, cheer, and match the boys in sports.

Tiffany was preceded in death by her fathers, Wayne Rutherford and Carroll L. Quinn III; her Uncle Malcolm Pyle; and her grandparents, Wesley Pyle, aka "Softy, Mayor of Sillyville," and Robbie Lee Stewart. She is survived by her husband, Sean; her children, Hannah and Curt and their children, Presley and Charlee; Dylan and Emily and their children, Branson and Parker; Tucker and Nicole; Trenton, Jayden, Jordan, and Kailynn. Tiffany is also survived by her mothers, Tammy L. Quinn and Kathy Rutherford; her sisters, Courtney, Mandy, Amy, Amber, and Heather, and their husbands and children; her in-laws, Melvin and Nancy Aron; and Godfather Dennis "Uncle Red" Burford. She leaves behind numerous nieces, nephews, friends, family, in-laws, and outlaws.

Tiffany was born as the first daughter to Wayne and Tammy. From the moment she arrived, they knew "A star was born!" Loved by everyone from the start, Tiffany was smart, multi talented, and a sought-after word smith and editor. Tiffany brought joy to those around her with her warm smile and generous spirit. She cherished being a mom, caring for her baby sisters as if they were her own from a young age. Her nurturing spirit remained strong, and she looked after everyone, even adults who no longer needed mothering. Tiffany discovered a love of writing and politics at a very young age, becoming an expert debater at the ripe old age of 2 thanks to her Uncle Ray teaching her to argue. She was passionate about debating and turned that fire into a career, sharing her adventures and family successes through her blogging. Tiffany loved to travel and cherished trips to the beach and other vacations with her family.

Tiffany's passing has left a void in the lives of all who loved her. Her wisdom and guidance will be deeply missed.

“ This woman. I don't know if I even have the words to describe what a giving, loving, accepting person she was. When I lost my son Benjamin, she was the first one who stepped forward with Support. I know she will be making her rounds in heaven as well. She's definitely an angel lost too soon.
