“ We didn't know Tim as well as our daughter and granddaughter's families knew him, but on the occasions when we were able to spend time with him, he was always kind, loving, and respectful. He loved our great-granddaughters, Destinee and Abrielle, like they were his - and Destinee especially often called 'Uncle Tim' to share her little heart with him. When I spoke with Tim a couple of weeks ago, he was still excited about the potential of moving into a house close to his Dad, because he really wanted to spend more time with his Dad. He was sad that the purchase had been delayed, but in typical Tim fashion, he was trying to look ahead to the time when things would fall into place. Tim loved my granddaughter, Aly, as a close friend and talked to her just about every day. He helped her through some awful times, and we always loved him for that. He and Clint also loved spending time at my daughter and son-in-law's house (Sarah and Luis) where they knew they were part of the family. Tim was such a loving man, and we were blessed to know him.

“ I got to know Tim through exhibition poultry. He was a funny, compassionate guy who always came and found me at shows to ask about our babies and life. He was always kind to our kiddos and quick to tell a joke. He'll be missed.
