“ Such a tremendous loss for you Terry, your precious children and grandchildren and all who knew and loved him. Tommy must have been the Will Rogers of friends - he never met one he didn't like. He always talked of his deep love of family, God and country. No better tribute to a man than to possess these three virtues with pride, and a sense of responsibility. He did have a heart as big as Texas, and his loss will leave a large void. May you try to find solace and comfort by the memories of his big smile, laugh, sense of humor and pride for that which he loved. With our most profound sympathy.
