“Ginger, you have left your footprints with glory on the sand of time. Your name will be remembered for a long time, and your story will be told for generations. Ginger cherished her family and friends deeply. She was the glue that brought everyone together – organizing family reunions, being present for special moments, and always lending a shoulder to lean on when needed. I will cherish Ginger’s memory and let it live on. I will miss you forever.” Love you Always…… Babs
