Memorials may be made to the Alzheimer's Association.

“I’m Free”

Don’t grieve for me, for now I’m free. I’m following the path God laid, you see.
I took His hand when I heard Him call. I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day. To laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks Left undone must stay that way. I found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joys. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss. Oh yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with time of sorrow. I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life’s been full, I savored much. Good friends, good times, a loved one’s touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief. Don’t lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and peace to thee.

God wanted me now; He set me free!

“ Saddened to hear this. This closes a huge chapter in many lives. Thinking of you Charlie and how she loved you so! Virginia is rejoicing with her loved ones whom passed before her. I can imagine the joy and complete fulfilment she now has being reunited with them. May she rest peacefully. ❤️
