“ I met Uncle Wayne when his nephew Eddie, my husband, and I came out to visit a couple times after we were married in 2006. I was glad to meet him, he was very kind, had good faith in the Lord, and was easy to laugh and joke with. Ed and I were sorry to hear of his passing, and know he is where he is once again with his wife and son. Our prayers are with you. Cathy and Ed Nobles

“ Brother Brock and his wife were our youth leaders in the early 70's. They were selfless. I was blessed to have his Godly influence in my younger years. I will always treasure the memories we shared as a group. Our times and get together on the river were some of my favorite memories.

“ I remember Mr. Brock from when he would visit the residents at the nursing home I worked. I was very fond of he and his wife. He was a kind person.
