“ I too will miss a dear, dear friend and always remember the good times of younger years. I have to share a memory that Kieke would have laughed about to this day. We were all 16 and as teenagers did back then were having fun. There were five of us in Steve Walton's first car that was considered a hot rod at the time and still is. We were just driving around the village and the guys (probably better not name any names) all had a quart of beer, one of them finished their beer (you know who you are) and threw the bottle in a front yard. Didn't see that there was a person in the yard, and this person just so happened to be an FBI agent. Of course this guy came after us and I guess Steve was up for a chase. Needless to say the Village police as well as the FBI agent caught us and all five of us ended up at the Village police station. Parents were called (the ones who were in town), if the parents weren't in town then the older sibling had to come get them. We were sooooo scared and in sooooo much trouble. The police took me home to my mother, Kieke and Clark (I think both of their parents were out of town) got grounded for a long time. Sharon's mother came and got her and when they left her mother had hold of her arm and dragged her out of the station. I don't remember what happened to Walton but I'm sure he got a ticket and wasn't able to drive his car for a while after that. It sure wasn't funny back then but we can laugh about it now and say "It was a fun ride and I'm glad I was there with you dear friend". I love you and will miss you immensely and always remember the good times Kieke. There were so many!!!!
