

Willard LaVerne Ferguson

September 16, 1947 - November 13, 2024

Willard L. Ferguson of Rockdale, TX went home to be with his Heavenly Father on November 13, 2024, at the age of 77, at St. Joseph's Hospital in Bryan surrounded by his family. Born on September 16, 1947 to Robert and Elda Dubose Ferguson in Luling, Texas.

A graduate of Southwest High School and Texas Tech University (magna cum laude), Will built a successful career as a land surveyor, civil engineer, oil and gas producer & consultant.

Will enjoyed traveling, reading, and watching college sports. But more than this he enjoyed supporting his family to achieve their goals, instill hard work ethics and loving his wife above all. Most know him by his sharp wit, fun sarcasm, willingness to say what was on his mind and to help anyone when they were down.

He is survived by his loving wife of 51 years, Betty Margaret Ferguson; his children, Matthew Ferguson (wife - Cortney) of College Station, TX, Bethany Bryan of New Braunfels, TX, and Abbie Ferguson of Rockdale, TX; his grandchildren, Ella, Shepard, Nathanael, Adina, and Maverick; his brothers, John (wife Alice) of Greer, SC and Robert Jr. (wife - Marie of Natalia, TX; brother-in-law Jim Smith of San Antonio, TX; and numerous nephews and nieces. He was preceded in death by his parents, Robert and Elda Ferguson; and his siblings, Viola Lipscomb, Joe Ferguson, Leo Ferguson, and Melba Smith.

Services will be held at Phillips & Luckey in Rockdale, Texas, on Saturday, November 16 at 2pm with a graveside service immediately following at IOOF cemetery. The viewing will precede the service at 1pm. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to Meadowbrook Baptist Church in Rockdale, Texas.
