

William Scott Devine

June 3, 1959 - March 24, 2025

Beloved husband, father, son, and brother, William Scott Devine, passed away peacefully in his home on March 24, 2025, at the age of 65.

Born on June 3, 1959 in Taylor, Texas, Scott was a devoted husband to Lynda and a loving father to Meredith, Nolan and Hugh. He spent a majority of his career in retail development, working for Random House Publishing Company and Big Tent Entertainment. His final years were spent as an entrepreneur, establishing Apache Shores Wellness.

Scott's loving spirit is carried on by his wife, Lynda; his children, Meredith, Nolan, and Hugh; his son-in law Kirk Ludwigsen; his grandson, Lincoln Ludwigsen; his mother, Linda Linke Secor; his sister, Allison Orr; sisters and brothers in-law, and many loving nieces and nephews.

Scott was a proud Texan through and through. He delighted in watching the Cowboys play and some of Scott and Lynda's best times were attending Texas Rangers games. Scott was also a connoisseur of fine cigars and enjoyed listening to an eclectic range of music. He loved German Shepherds and had a soft spot for animals, particularly his dog, Marley. In his free time, he loved visiting his family's farm in Rockdale and had a passion for the land's beauty and community. His family's heritage was paramount to him and a favorite talking point to anyone who would listen. However, what Scott held most dear and spoke most proudly about, was his three children. He valued each of their unique gifts and supported them with his resources, especially his time. Whether he was at a piano competition, coaching little league baseball, or taking each one of his children on a special trip, they were his pride and joy.

Services will be held at Phillips and Luckey Funeral Home in Rockdale on Monday, March 31st at 11:00 am. A celebration of life will be held following the ceremony at the Apache Pass Icehouse located at 9132 N Fm 908, Rockdale, TX 76567.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to First Presbyterian Church in Mesquite, Texas in Scott Devine's memory at <https://fpcmesquite.org>

“ Scott was a great friend. We both moved to Argyle to raise our families when the town didn't even have a high school. By the time we left, it was the best school in the state. We had a bible study, neighborhood get togethers, holidays...great memories.

One time our family had a tough situation where we were victims of a predator in town. It seemed everyone was doubting us or just trying to not get involved or look the other way. Not Scott. He showed up to my house one evening and took me outside to his car where he showed me a baseball bat in the trunk and suggested some country justice was in order. Of course we thought better after scratching our chins for a few minutes, but I tell you the truth, he was the only one in town who cared.

Remember the story in the bible of the paraplegic who was lowered through the thatch roof by his four friends? It was so Jesus would see and heal him, which he did. Well, I always said I wish I had four friends like that in this life and I consider Scott one of my four.

God Bless you Scott. I'll see you soon enough!
