

Yetta Henderson-Glover

May 29, 1974 - November 8, 2013

Graveside services for Yetta Henderson-Glover, 39, of Dime Box will be held Thursday, November 14, 2013, at 11:00 a.m. at Copperas Cemetery in Doak Springs, TX. Ms. Henderson-Glover passed away the morning of Friday, November 8, 2013 at her home in Dime Box, Texas. Yetta LaVett Henderson was born May 29, 1974 in Dallas, Texas to the late Charles Lee Henderson Sr. and Imageene Davis Henderson. Being in the Henderson family meant going to the house of the Lord, and when Yetta was only a young girl she decided to give her life to Christ. She remained a faithful servant in the house of the Lord until her earthly departure. Yetta always excelled in singing and creativity. She sang in the choir for many years and was known for her ability to write songs and poems and play the drums. She was also known for her leadership abilities and her kind-hearted spirit. Yetta completed her schooling in the Dallas Independent School District. She then attended the University of Phoenix for two years of collegiate study. In 1996, Yetta married the love of her life, the late Naymond Glover, III. To their union two children were born, Shanaemia Henderson and Naymond Glover IV. She also served as a surrogate parent to her niece, Deborah Henderson after the death of her sister, Kersandra. Ms. Henderson-Glover is survived by her daughter, Shanaemia Henderson, son, Naymond Glover IV, neice, Deborah Henderson, three sisters, Brenda Rowe, Lydia Dorsey and husband, Micheal Spratt, and Meme Henderson, six brothers, Kerry Dorsey, Phil Dorsey, Derrick Dorsey, Lyle Dorsey, Charles Henderson Jr., and Emanuel Henderson, two very close cousins, Myron Henderson and Evelyn (Roshohn) Lawson, as well as a host of other nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family, and friends, all by whom she will be dearly missed. She was preceded in death by her father, Charles Lee Henderson Sr., mother, Imogene Henderson, husband, Naymond Glover III, and sisters, Kersandra Henderson and Frankie Lee Boyd.
